Award Category (check one)

Stan Tait & Deborah Flack Award

For truly outstanding contributions in the preservation of Florida's beaches over a period of many years. These contributions may be for political, administrative, scientific, engineering or environmental achievements. This is FSBPA's highest award, named after two of FSBPA's long-time leaders. Non-Floridians are eligible.

Per Bruun Distinguished Service Award

For significant contributions in the cause of beach preservation. Unlike the Stan Tait & Deborah Flack Award, this can be awarded for a single noteworthy project or accomplishment. Non-Floridians are eligible. This award is named after the first Director of Coastal Engineering, University of Florida and founder of FSBPA in 1957.

Bob Dean Coastal Research Award

For outstanding research into beach and coastal processes which contributes to improved beach management and resilient shorelines. This award is named after the University of Florida distinguished research professor and FSBPA's Chair Emeritus.

Jim Purpura/T.Y. Chiu Engineering Award

For outstanding contribution to coastal engineering that enhances beach preservation. The award may be in recognition of innovative scientific research or for long excellence and contributions in coastal engineering. Non-Floridians are eligible. This award is named after the two scientists who pioneered Florida's coastal construction control line program.

The Richard E. Bonner – Jacqueline J. Keiser Award

Recognizing outstanding service by an individual representing the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Local Government Award

For a local government official who has contributed significantly to beach preservation and enhancement. Only Floridians are eligible.

Legislative Award

To the state or national lawmaker who has provided outstanding policy leadership in terms of beach management funding or other program support for managing our beaches.

Environmental Award

For outstanding contributions toward protection of the coastal environment.

Member of the Year Award

To a member of FSBPA, for outstanding service to the association.

Public Service Award

To a public employee whose service reflects admirably on the governmental sector, specifically in the area of beach management and resilience planning.

Ralph Sexton Private Citizen Award

For a private citizen who has made a significant contribution to the cause of beach preservation in Florida. Only Floridians are eligible.
